February 11, 2015, San Francisco, CA – Southern Exposure is proud to present EQUILUX, our Annual Fundraiser & Art Auction on Saturday, March 21, 2015, 7:30 – 11:00 PM. The auction will be held at Southern Exposure, 3030 20th Street, San Francisco, CA 94110. The night features a live and silent art auction of work from over 120 established and emerging artists, delicious food and beverages and artist-led creative projects. Our 2015 auction takes place one day after the vernal equinox – equal parts night and day, it is a celebration of celestial alignment and the beginning of a new season.

This highly anticipated event provides direct and critical support for Southern Exposure's programs and enables SoEx to continue supporting artists, presenting ambitious, groundbreaking programs and serving as a center of visual arts activity in the Bay Area. Please join us! Auction tickets can be purchased by phone at 415-863-2141 or online at soexauction2015.eventbrite.com.

ABOUT SOUTHERN EXPOSURE

Southern Exposure (SoEx) is an artist-centered non-profit organization committed to supporting visual artists. Through our extensive and innovative programming, SoEx strives to experiment, collaborate and further educate while providing an extraordinary resource center and forum for Bay Area and national artists in our Mission District space and off-site, in the public realm.

An active presence in the Bay Area since 1974, SoEx is continually evolving in response to the needs of artists and the community while engaging the public in artists' work. Central to our mission is to remain the most accessible space for visual artists to produce and present new work, learn, and connect. SoEx provides visual artists with the tools and resources they need to experiment in an open and supportive environment. We also work to advocate to new,
