Mission Voices Summer!

Are you in high school and interested in a summer visual arts program?

Southern Exposure's Mission Voices Summer

(MVS) is a FREE 4-week intensive summer arts program for youth aged 14-21. Young artists learn to use the visual arts as a tool for expressing ideas, ambitions, and creativity. In MVS, you'll spend the summer working with more than 40 other Bay Area youth and 6 professional artists to develop an art exhibition in SoEx's large Mission district gallery. Learn all kinds of skills from drawing, printing, and woodworking to sculpture, video, and architecture, as you plan your solely youth created exhibition. SoEx is looking for excited, committed, and creative youth to join this summer's program. Apply today to be a part of Mission Voices Summer!

MVS meets from July 11–August 4, 2016; Monday through Thursday from 2-5:00 PM.
The MVS exhibition opens August 4 and runs through August 13, 2016.

Mission Voices Summer and all AIE programs are always FREE!

To apply fill out the attached application and return to SoEx by Monday, June 6th!

Southern Exposure (SoEx) is a nonprofit visual arts organization that supports emerging artists and youth in a dynamic environment in which they can develop and present new work and ideas.

SoEx's nationally recognized Artists in Education (AIE) program brings together diverse youth, artists, schools and community organizations in a dynamic series of innovative programs. AIE offers youth opportunities to learn critical, artistic, vocational, and cultural experiences beyond the traditional school environment.
